- (f) "Relevant recruitment rules" means the recruitment rules prescribed by the Government for the posts specified in Appendix-A.

3. Procedure for preparing requisitions.-

- (1) Every year, all the offices other than those mentioned in Appendix-B shall send the requisition indicating their requirements of persons for appointment to the posts under Class III civil services specified in Appendix-A to their respective Secretariat Departments in the pro forma as specified in Appendix-C in the manner as may be specified by the Government or the Board.
- (2) The respective Secretariat Department shall then send a consolidated requisition to the Board for all the offices under their administrative control, indicating their total requirement for appointment to the post of Class III civil services specified in Appendix-A in the pro forma as specified in Appendix-D in the manner as may be specified by the Government or the Board.
- (3) The General Administration Department shall send a requisition for the requirement of persons for appointment to the post of Office Assistant specified in Appendix-A, in the pro forma as specified in Appendix-E, in the manner as may be specified by the Government or the Board.
- (4) Each District Collector shall send the requisition indicating their requirements of persons for appointment to the post of Junior Clerk under the Office of District Collectors to the Revenue Department. The Revenue Department shall send a consolidated Requisition to the Board in the pro forma as specified in Appendix-E in the manner as may be specified by the Government or the Board.

4. Holding of examination.-

The Board, on receiving the requisition from the Government, shall hold a Combined Competitive Examination for the selection of candidates for recruitment to the posts specified in Appendix-A.

5. Conduct and regulation of examination.-

The Board shall regulate all matters relating to the appointment of examiners, supervisors, and related staff, remuneration payable to them, and conduct of examination in accordance with the procedure adopted by it and in conformity with the orders, if any, issued by the Government on that behalf.

6. Mode of examination.-

- (1) The examination shall be held in two successive stages, namely:-

(a) The Preliminary Examination;

- (i) A Common Preliminary Examination shall be conducted for the selection of candidates for Group-A and Group-B posts mentioned in Appendix-A.
- (ii) A separate merit list shall be prepared for Group-A and Group-B posts mentioned in Appendix-A for the Main Examination.

(b) Main Examination:

- (1) Separate Main Examination shall be conducted for final selection of candidates for Group-A and Group-B posts mentioned in Appendix-A.
  - (i) For Group-A posts the Main Examination shall be of Descriptive type.
  - (ii) For Group-B posts the Main Examination shall be of MCQ type.

- (2) The Preliminary Examination and the Main Examination shall be held in a manner as specified in the Appendix- F and G, respectively.
- (3) The Number of candidates called for the Main Examination, subject to availability, shall be seven times the number of vacancies in Group-A and Group-B so advertised.

7. Scheme and Syllabus.-

The Board shall determine the details of the syllabus for the paper specified in Appendix-F. The scheme of the Main Examination shall be as defined in Appendix-G. The syllabus for the same for Group-A posts shall be as specified in Appendix-H.

8. Medium of examination.-

The medium of the Preliminary Examination and the Main Examination shall be Gujarati or English as per the instructions given in the question papers.

9. Place of examination.-

- (1) The date, time, and place of the examination shall be decided by the Board.
- (2) The candidate shall be required to attend all the stages of the examination at his own expense on the dates, time, and place notified by the Board.

10. Application for examination.-

- (1) The candidate who desires to appear at the Preliminary Examination shall submit an application in such form within such time as may be determined by the Board, along with such fees as may be prescribed by the Board. The candidate, while applying for the preliminary examination, shall have to fill up the choice for Group-A or Group-B or both.
- (2) The candidate who is declared qualified by the Board, based on the result of the Preliminary Examination, for admission to the Main Examination shall not be required to apply again.
- (3) The request of a candidate for withdrawal of application, unless specified by the Board, shall not be entertained in any circumstances.

11. Examination fees.-

- (1) Each candidate shall pay the examination fee (for Preliminary Examination) to the Board in the manner prescribed by the Board in respect of an application made by him under these rules and attach a document of such payment along with such application:

Provided that the fees paid shall be refunded to those candidates who appear for the Preliminary Examination.

- (2) The candidates who is declared qualified in Preliminary Examination by the Board, shall not be required to pay any examination fee for the Main Examination.

12. Educational qualifications and age limit.-

- (1) A candidate possessing the requisite eligibility criteria for the posts specified in Appendix-A prescribed under the relevant recruitment rules shall be eligible for admission to the examination.
- (2) A candidate for admission to the Examination shall have attained not less than a minimum age of 20 years and shall not have attained the maximum age prescribed in the relevant recruitment rules on the date as may be specified in the advertisement by the Board:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in accordance with the provisions of the Gujarat Civil Services Classification and Recruitment (General) Rules, 1967.

13. Decision of the Board shall be final.-

- (1) The decision of the Board as to the eligibility of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final.
- (2) If at any time, the candidate is found ineligible to appear at the examination, his candidature shall be treated as cancelled ab initio:

Provided that if a candidate is already selected and appointed, his appointment shall be treated as cancelled ab initio and his service shall be terminated forthwith:

Provided further that no such appointment shall be terminated unless the candidate has been given an opportunity of being heard.

14. Appearance at the main examination.-

- (1) The Preliminary Examination shall consist of One Paper of Objective type (Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs)) and carry a maximum mark of 150 and the Scheme and the time period for the same are as specified in Appendix-F. The Preliminary Examination is meant as a screening test only. The marks obtained in the Preliminary Examination by the candidate shall not be counted for determining the final order of merit. The number of candidates to be allowed to appear for the Main Examination shall be about seven times the total number of vacancies so advertised.
- (2) The candidate, who is declared qualified in the Preliminary Examination by the Board, shall only be eligible for admission to the Main Examination, subject to the condition that he is otherwise eligible for admission to the Main Examination.
- (3) The Main Examination for the final selection of the candidates for the Group-A and Group-B posts, shall be held in the manner as specified in Appendix-G. The final ranking of the candidate shall be determined based on the marks obtained by him in the main examination:

Provided that candidates belonging to the reserved categories may be allowed to appear in the Main Examination or, as the case may be, called for Main Examination relaxing the standards in the Preliminary examination or, as the case may be, in the Main Examination, if the Board is of the opinion that sufficient number of candidates from these categories are not likely to be available for the Main Examination or, as the case may be, based on qualifying standard for general category to fill up the vacancies reserved for such categories.

15. Qualifying standard and marks.-

The qualifying standard for Preliminary Examination and Main Examination shall be determined by the Board from time to time and if necessary, separately for reserved and non-reserved categories of candidates. However, the minimum qualifying standard determined by the Board shall not in any case be less than 40% of marks in the Preliminary Examination and in each paper of the Main Examination, as the case may be.

16. Prohibition on using certain devices in the examination hall.-

- (1) The candidate shall be required to answer all the question papers of the examination in his own handwriting. However, candidates who belong to the person with disabilities category shall be allowed to write in the Examination with the help of a scribe, subject to such instructions as may be issued by the Board on that behalf from time to time.
- (2) In addition to the list of items declared prohibited by the Board, the candidate shall not be allowed to carry with him a cellular phone, calculator, pager, tablet, iPad, smart-watch or any other electronic/ communication device.

17. Disciplinary action.-

A candidate who is or has been declared by the Board to be guilty of-

  - (a) to be disqualified by the Board from the examination for which he is a candidate; or
  - (b) to be debarred either permanently or for a specified period,-
    - (i) by the Board for appearing in any examination or candidature for the concerned post, or
    - (ii) by the Government from any employment under it:

Provided that no penalty under sub-clause (i) or (ii) shall be imposed except after giving the candidate an opportunity of making such representation in writing as he may wish to make on that behalf and with the prior approval of the Government; or
  - (c) to disciplinary action under the relevant rules, if he is in the Government service.

18. Preparation of the shortlist for Document Verification:

- (1) The result of all the candidates who have appeared in the Main Examination for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B shall be prepared and shall be arranged by the Board in the order of merit base on marks finally awarded to each candidate in the Main Examination held for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B, specifying details as the Board may deem fit.
- (2) The Board shall call the qualifying candidates separately, for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B, subject to availability, two times the number of vacancies requisitioned and advertised, for verification of documents submitted by them. All such candidates who are declared qualified by the Board, based on the result of the Main Examination, shall be, at the time of verification of documents, required to produce the proof of passing the degree examination along with other documents as specified by the Board.

19. Order of preference.-

- (1) The candidate, who have been shortlisted for document Verification as per the rule 18, shall indicate, when prescribed by the Board, the order of preferences for the posts or the department or the office or, as the case may be, combination thereof for which he desires to be considered for appointment separately for the Posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B as specified in rule 6, in such manner as may be determined by the Board:

Provided that the preference once given by the candidate shall be treated as final and no request for revision, addition, alteration or change in the preference shall be entertained by the Board or by the Government.
- (2) The order of preference for the posts or the department or the office or the District or, as the case may be, the combination thereof, indicated by the candidate shall not confer any right for appointment. Having regard to the rank in the order of merit and the number of posts available, the preference given by the Candidate shall be considered by the Board at the time of allotment.
- (3) Where a candidate has not given preference for any post or the department or the office or the district or as the case may be, the combination thereof or the candidate has given preference only for a few posts and the number of posts for which he has given preference are not available to accommodate the candidate as per his preference, then, having regard to the merit rank of the candidate and availability of post, he shall be allotted any of the available post, after the allotment of all other candidates. Even after such allotment, if he refuses in writing in such a form as may be prescribed by the Board, to accept such allotment, it shall be considered that the candidate is not interested in the posts available to the candidate. In such a case, the posts available shall be allotted to the other candidate in order of Merit based on his preference.

20. Procedure for Preparation of Select List:

- (1) The result of all the candidates who have appeared in the Main Examination for the Posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B shall be prepared separately and shall be arranged by the Board in the order of merit basis of marks finally awarded to each candidate in the Main Examination held separately for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B specifying details as the Board may deem fit and the same shall be caused to be published on the notice board and/or on website of the Board and the copy of the result so published shall be sent to the Government in General Administration Department and the concerned Secretariat Departments separately for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B as may be applicable.
- (2) The Board shall prepare a select list for the concerned posts or the department or the office or, as the case may be, a combination thereof, for the posts mentioned in Group-A and Group-B to the extent of the number of vacancies requisitioned as per the merit of the candidate and the order of preference given by him.
- (3) The candidate who belongs to the reserved category and is selected on his own merit but according to his order of preference, does not get the concerned post. If the posts of the concerned reserved category are available as per order of preference given by such a candidate of the reserved category, then such, candidate shall be allocated to that post. Such a reserved post shall be treated as a filled post against the reservation quota of such category.

21. Result of Examination:

- (1) The Board shall declare the result of the examination in three parts as under, namely:-

Part-I: The result of the successful candidates shall be arranged in the order of merit along with necessary particulars such as category of candidate, his date of birth, order of preference for post and such other particulars as the Government may direct or the Board may deem fit and the same shall be published on the notice board and/or on web-site of the Board. The result shall be published by the Board in the Official Gazette, and the copy of the same shall be sent to the relevant administrative Department. The Board shall communicate the result of the successful candidates individually in the manner as may be specified by the Board. The Board shall not enter into any further correspondence with the successful candidates after communication of the result.

Part II: The Board shall prepare a list of the unsuccessful candidates who are not included in Part I, specifying their names, seat numbers and total marks obtained by them, and the same shall be published on the notice board and /or website of the Board.

Part-III: The Board shall prepare a list of candidates who qualified in the Mains examination but could not be allotted any post due to limited or no preference given by them.

- (2) Under no circumstances, the marks of any part of the Main Examination be disclosed before the official declaration of the final result.

22. Rechecking of marks of the Main Examination:

- (1) A candidate who desires to have his marks of the Mains Examination rechecked may apply to the Board along with such fee as may be fixed by the Board for each paper within a period of fifteen (15) days of the declaration of the result of the Main Examination for each paper.
- (2) A candidate who desires to have the marks-sheet of the Main Examination shall apply to the Board along with such fee as may be fixed by the Board, within the period of fifteen days of declaration of the final result of the Main Examination.
- (3) In no circumstances, the request for reassessment of any or all the papers of the Main Examination shall be entertained or accepted.

23. Forwarding result to the Government.-

The Board, on declaration of the result, shall forward to the relevant Secretariat Department, the list of candidates who are recommended for appointment along with necessary particulars such as category of candidate, their date of birth, order of preference for post and such other particulars as the Government may direct or the Board may deem fit. The relevant Secretariat Department shall forward such a list received from the Board to the relevant Offices under their administrative control for appointment. The concerned appointing authorities, thereafter, shall issue orders of appointment of the candidates so allotted, and such orders shall be sent to the concerned candidates by Registered Post Acknowledgement Due (RPAD) or Speed Post.

24. No right to appointment.-

Merely qualifying in the examination shall not by itself confer upon a candidate any right to appointment, and no candidate shall be appointed to the post unless the appointing authority is satisfied, after making such inquiry, as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the post and public service.

25. Waiting list.-

There shall be no waiting list. The posts remaining vacant shall be included in the next recruitment event.

26. Appointment.-

Appointment of the selected candidates shall be made strictly in order of their rank in the merit list based on the main examination prepared by the Board.

27. Joining to post. -

The selected candidate for appointment to the concerned post, shall have to join his posting within 30 days from the date of receipt of the appointment order. If the candidate fails to join his posting within 30 days, his appointment order shall be cancelled. However, if it is established that, for reasons beyond his control, the candidate could not join the posting within 30 days, the competent authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, allow such a candidate to join the posting even after the expiry of 30 days. However, the seniority of such a candidate shall be determined in accordance with the Government orders in that regard.

28. Controlling Authority.-

The Secretary to the Government in the General Administration Department (Personnel) shall be the controlling and coordinating authority for the implementation of these rules.

29. Interpretation of rules.-

If any question arises as to the interpretation of any of these rules, the question shall be referred to the Secretary, General Administration Department (Personnel) for the decision and his decision in the matter shall be final.

30. Repeal and savings.-

The Gujarat Subordinate Services Class III (Group-A and Group-B) (Combined Competitive Examination) Rules, 2023, are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect any things done or action taken under any of the rules so repealed:

Provided further that notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, any action initiated under the Gujarat Subordinate Service, Class III (Group-A and Group-B) (Combined Competitive Examination) Rules, 2023, before the commencement of these rules, shall be valid till it is completed.
